Charles Gaiennie

By the calendar... it is not communication as a ‘one size fits all’ but communication as a ‘365 day a year’ effort. Whether the media is weekly, daily, monthly, quarterly, or even annually, it is certain that if you do not show up to the party, your clients, your customers, and your audience will not notice you. It is a matter of frequency. If you are not visible, you are invisible. Charles is the owner of local advertising agency, Commercial Graphics and Advertising, serving Houma and Terrebonne Parish for over two decades and hundreds of companies. He can be reached at (985) 873-1310. His work as an advertising consultant to business spans more than 20 years. He is a member of the Houma-Thibodaux Chamber of Commerce. He has been recognized for his membership, contribution and dedication to the Chamber. He is dedicated to helping local businesses make a difference through his own time and energy.

Leslie Garofalo
Synergy Bank

How long has it been in business? Is it locally owned? What is your title? What are your primary responsibilities? Where were you born and raised? Tell us about your job? What is the one experience you want for the clients to help them with all their financial needs? What is your title? I graduated from Terrebonne High School and have a degree in Business Administration from the University of New Orleans. I have an active role in community service, having volunteered countless hours of my time. We make it our business to offer a full range of financial services, not just in our main office located at 2600 Center Blvd and Martin Luther King Blvd., but in four other locations.

Denise Garofalo
Synergy Bank

Tell us about the relationship between Synergy Bank and the Houma-Chamber of Commerce. The Chamber selects member businesses, organizations and individuals to highlight in this monthly publication. Synergy Bank was selected at a recent Generations and Individuals Luncheon to be featured. Earlier this month we interviewed Denise Garofalo to learn more about her and Synergy Bank.
